About us	We are the economic development agency of the district of Ostprignitz-Ruppin with its capital Neuruppin, located approximately 60 km northwest from Berlin. Ostprignitz-Ruppin unites the tranquility, the space and freedom of the rural area with the close distance to the German capital Berlin. Live with lower costs and a higher selection of appartements but be able to spend your weekends in Berlin! We represent interesting job offers of the companies of the district to find qualified and motivated colleagues but also active co-creators of our beautiful region. When you have questions about joining us in Ostprignitz-Ruppin feel free to contact us! We help with our big network with the job search but also with further questions of any kind. So you have a reliable contact from the beginning!
